ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce WILLIAM R. HOWELL, of Christian county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the State Senate from the District composed of Christian and Hopkins counties. Subject to the August primary.

In both France and Persia, the allies are pushing the enemy back mile by mile.

After all, Bannwart was not so bad a pacifist. He wanted peace so bad he was willing to fight for it.

Senator Lodge made more reputation knocking Bannwart down than he has achieved by any speech he ever made in the Senate.

Six Senators—three Democrats and three Republicans—stood pat on peace at any price. We pity their patriotism, but admire their nerve.

A careful search of Webster's Un-abridged does not disclose the new word "pacifist," but we all know what it means. It sounds better to accent it on the second syllable.

A declaration of war means that war will be begun. A declaration of "a state of war" means that war has already been started. Both mean that "the next gale that sweeps" from the sea, will bring the "news of resounding arms."

Pending war with Germany gave irresistible strength Wednesday on the board of trade and swept grain and provisions up to what some dealers referred to as a famine basis. Wheat jumped to $2.02 a bushel for May delivery, more than double the price in ordinary peace times.

Governor Thomas E. Campbell, of Arizona has issued a proclamation designating to-morrow as "Loyalty Sunday" and calling upon all citizens of Arizona to assemble in their respective houses of worship or their homes and pledge their loyalty and their lives to their country.

Forty republicans, including some of the best known men in Evansville, pleaded guilty today to an indictment charging conspiracy to commit election frauds. They threw themselves upon the mercy of the federal court.
Judge Anderson took the case under consideration, permitting them to go home under bond until April 28. Jail sentences in many cases are expected.

China and several of the South American countries may possibly follow the action of this government, particularly Brazil, Peru and Bolivia, which have already protested against Germany's submarine campaign. Brazil especially is said to be bitter against Germany, because of the seizure of Brazilian coffee at the beginning of the war. Argentina, Chile and Mexico, however, have given indications that they will adhere to strict neutrality.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

A Mine Of Quotations.

No single poem in the Englin. guage perhaps has contributed so many lines that have passed into currency of quotation as Grey's famous elegy. It is a veritable mine of epigrammatic nuggets that have enriched the language of orators and writers and become such familiar property their origin is almost forgotten and they seldom now receive the credit even of quotation marks. Here are a few of them that will be recognized as old friends:

"The short and simple annals of the poor."

"Rich with the spoils of time."

"The paths of glory lead but to the grave."

"And freeze the genial currents of the soul."

"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen and waste its sweetness on the desert air."

"Some mute, inglorious Milton, some Hampden guiltless of his country's blood."

"Hands that the rod of empire might have swayed."

"The applause of listening senates to command."

"The noiseless tenor of their way."

"Far from the madding crowd's ignoble strife."

"E'en in our ashes live their wonted fires."

"A youth to fortune and to fame unknown."

"To wade through slaughter to a throne."

The inspirational influences of the poem have been far reaching. Thomas Hardy's most famous book—and the best of his earlier novels—"The Madding Crowd," derived its title and perhaps its inspiration from one of the oft quoted lines of the elegy. It is told of Daniel Webster that when he was being driven to the Capitol to deliver his reply to Hayne he was heard by one of his companions to murmur over and over again as he rode along the words: "The applause of listening senates to command." It will also be remembered that Wolfe, the conqueror of Quebec, read this poem in his tent the night before the battle on the Plains of Abraham and said:

"I had rather be the author of that poem than the conqueror of Quebec."

Institutional Treatment of Tuberculosis means that the patient is given constant attention; that the regime which is found to be best adapted to the case is rightly adhered to; that a resident physician is at hand all of the time, studying the case and adapting the treatment to it; that nursing service is the best.

All of these things mean improvement, greater comfort and possible recovery. Hazelwood is operated without profit by the Louisville
